Call for Submissions

Connecting Cultures is in the process of designing an addiction resource for individuals. Connecting Cultures is asking for submissions of short stories and art work with the theme of addiction and/or healing from addiction.

Stories (max. 500 words) must be true personal experiences. Connecting Cultures reserves the right to edit the selected stories to fit the presentation of the resource being developed. Stories must be sent electronically as word documents.

Art work and/or photos must be scanned in and sent electronically as high resolution jpegs. Art work/photos can be based on personal interpretation of Addiction or of HEALING from addiction.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS: November 30, 2008. Please send all submissions to romy.pritchard@ccultures.com .

All submissions will be notified of selection decision. Please include contact information along with the submission.

Connecting cultures will reserve all copy rights of the selected submissions to use the stories and reproduce the art work for the publication of the addiction resource. Those selected will be published in the addiction resource with a credited short paragraph describing the author/artist and contact information if desired.

Connecting Cultures thanks you in advance for your thoughtful submissions to this addiction resource.

For further information please contact Romy Pritchard at 250-920-0373 or at romy.pritchard@ccultures.com .
